Subject: RE: McConnell v. USPS- Request to continue April 29 status conference
Importance: High

Your Honor:

This email is a follow up to my email of Wednesday requesting a short continuance of the Monday, April 29 Status conference. As I stated, I have to be out of town on leave due to an unexpected family matter I must personally attend to. I recognize that this is a significant request given I the number of parties involved and you have my commitment that this is a one-time request. Unfortunately, I must attend to this family matter personally and there is no one else authorized and prepared to speak on behalf of the Agency at the upcoming conference. I apologize that I have to make this request. I take these conferences very seriously but unfortunately at times, life intervenes.

Thank you for your consideration and again, my apologies. I am available Thursday May 2 or any other Monday. The Agency will provide notice of the new date, if approved.

Judge Roberts-Draper:

I have a family matter that unfortunately requires my attendance on Monday, April 29, 2019 during the currently scheduled status conference. I respectfully request that the conference be rescheduled to another day that is convenient for you. I apologize for the last minute request.

I am available next Thursday, May 2, 2019. If Mondays work for you and more preferable, I am available on Monday, May 6, 2019 and Monday, May 13, 2019, and Monday, May 20, 2019.

The Postal Service will serve notice of the rescheduled date on all counsel and parties that participated in the last conference. I appreciate your understanding.

Best-
Eve

Subject: McConnell v. USPS- Postal Service Response to Motion to Show Cause

Re: Velva B., et al. vs. USPS (aka McConnell vs. USPS, et al.)
EEOC Hearing No. 520-2010-00280X
Agency Case No. 4B-140-0062-06

Counsel and Judge Roberts-Draper,

Attached is the USPS Response to

Redacted

Motion For Order To Show Cause.

Unfortunately, our network, phones, and servers are down and we are unable to file the Agency's submission in response to Ms. Wallace's Order to Show Cause in FedSEP. This is an issue affecting the entire building where our servers are located, and while the service provider has been working nonstop to resolve the issue, we do not yet know when we will regain access to our system. The Agency will file its submission in FedSEP as soon as we are able to access to the system, hopefully by tomorrow morning. Once the Agency's response is filed in FedSEP, copies will be sent to the individual claimants via first class mail.

Best regards,

Carrie A. Brantley
